

COLDIRETTI
TORINO

COLDIRETTI TORINO

The Coldiretti in Turin has for essential object the fulfillment of the syndical finalities; particularly as it results from the statute:

- towards the provincial political and administrative institutions, to represent and to sustain the affairs of the categories represented in the circle of the economic politics that you/they valorise the resources of the provincial agriculture under the productive, economic, commercial, social and environmental aspect in relationship to the evolution of market of the compartment of agriculture;
- to guarantee the guardianship and to stimulate the development of the person and his/her professionalism in the environment of agricultural and rural job, holding particularly it foresees the role that the family and the values of help and social solidarity practice in the life and in the rural environment;
- to sustain to provincial level the development of the enterprise and the agricultural activity in all of his/her articulations, with particular respect to the incentive of the juvenile and female entrepreneurship, to the containment of the costs of production, to the growth of the competitiveness and the technological innovation, conjugating entrepreneurship and professionalism;
- to promote politics of government and development ecosostenibile and durable of the territory and of the environment;

COLDIRETTI
TORINO

- to promote turned politics to the safety and the quality of the Italian food product in the interest of the enterprises and the consumers;
- to develop investigations and studies of social character, technical economic, financial of interest of the sector agroalimentare and of the rural areas;
- to assure to the represented categories and in general to the rural world the political information, syndical, technique and economic, managing her/it and divulging her/it, also as publisher, with any mean of information;
- to assure within the province the diffusion of the activity of professional formation and technical support in agriculture.

COLDIRETTI TORINO

Via Pio VII, 97 - 10135 Torino - Tel. 011.61.77.211 - Fax 011.31.61.348

e-mail: torino@coldiretti.it