The Partnership

E-LARA project derives from the need of diffusing literacy among young people and women who live and work in the rural and marginal areas of the Province of Turin (Italy), of Velay (France) and in the territory of Penacova (Portugal).

The project, co-financed by the European Commission - Directorate General for Education and Culture - eLearning Programme, has realised:

- a learning centre dedicated to interesting issues for the rural areas;
- ICT tools awareness workshops in the involved territories;
- public points for the Internet access (IPOP);
- a communication campaign on the usefulness of ICT tools;
- identification and spreading of good practices of e-learning.
